COUNTY MANAGER'S REPORT

December 10, 2022

Dress Down December

Per County Personnel Policy, the County Manager can allow employees to “dress down” or dress more casually, but typically on Fridays. For the month of December, employees are allowed to dress down in appropriate “holiday” wear with a $20 donation that will go to Yadkin Christian Ministries to help those in need during this holiday season. Friday morning, Teresa Turner and I delivered $1,500 to Yadkin Christian Ministries.

Bray Street Property

The real and personal property on Bray Street that the County received through a Commissioners’ Deed upon foreclosure due to failure to pay property taxes, was auctioned off by Groce Auctioneers Saturday (December 10). The house and land brought $30,000 and the other personal property brought a little over $1,200.

Solid Waste Improvement Plan

Brock submitted the improvements at the Solid Waste Facility for a BRIC grant. The pre-application made the second round of cuts and he is now working on the full application to be submitted in January. We are excited about this opportunity. The plan would include constructing 2 sets of scales, scale house, new office building and changes to the road for easier access that would create a better traffic flow.

Human Resources

The recently created HR Specialist position has been filled and the new employee will start January 3. We are still working to fill the HR Officer position.
